In Memoriam: Scott Johnson

Chris Beytes

Scott Wade Johnson, third-generation owner of Johnson's Nursery in West Bend, Wisconsin, tragically passed away as a result of a mountain biking accident on November 30, while on vacation. He was just 54.

Active in the Wisconsin nursery industry, Scott held numerous board positions, including the Wisconsin Nursery & Landscape Association, Wisconsin Green Industry Federation and the Milwaukee Area Technical College Landscape Horticulture Advisory Committee.

Scott is survived by his wife, Kelly; children Dana, Derek and Devin; grandchildren Brady, Norah and Abbie; and his father, Wayne. GT
