Save the Date for the Tropical Plant International Expo

Jennifer Zurko

Mark your calendars now: the 2027 Tropical Plant International Expo (TPIE) will take place January 20-22, 2027, at the Broward County Convention Center in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

TPIE brings plant professionals together from all over the world to source tropical and indoor plants, and related products and services. It's also where industry professionals go to sharpen insights and explore emerging trends and products.
