

GROWERTALKS

GT in Brief

2/1/2020

Deadline for AFE Paid Internships Looming

Jennifer Zurko

The American Floral Endowment (AFE) is accepting applications for two floriculture/horticulture internship programs. The application deadline is March 1, 2020.

The Vic & Margaret Ball Intern Scholarship Program provides the opportunity to gain experience at a commercial production greenhouse or nursery. The program offers paid internships in three, four or six-month durations and provides scholarships of up to $6,000.

The Mosmiller Intern Scholarship Program provides students pursuing a career in retail or wholesale operations with internship experience and honors the late Colonel and Mrs. Walter E. Mosmiller, Jr. The program offers paid internships in 10- to 16-week durations and provides scholarships of $2,000.

To learn more and apply online, visit endowment.org/internships. GT