AIB Symposium to Be Virtual

Jennifer Zurko

COVID-19 required America In Bloom (AIB) to change their in-person event in St. Louis to their first-ever virtual event, which will be held September 30-October 2.

AIB is calling the event “Symposium in the Sky” and the key components attendees are used to experiencing at the in-person symposium are still included, like educational sessions, speakers, awards, idea sharing, networking and more.
