Northeast Greenhouse Conference & Expo Announces Speaker Lineup

Jennifer Zurko

The Northeast Greenhouse Conference and Expo will feature educational sessions on business management and greenhouse biological controls. The conference will be held November 3 & 4, 2021 at the Boxboro Regency Hotel in Boxborough, Massachusetts.

Speakers and sessions include:

- “Let’s Figure Out Gen X, Y & Z”—Amanda Thomsen, Kiss My Aster (and Green Profit columnist)
- “Applying a Lean Approach in Different Parts of the Business”—Gerson “Gary” Cortes, Flow Vision
- “Mitigating May Madness”—Amanda Thomsen, Kiss My Aster; and Sue Adams and Dan Snyder, Fair Acre Farms
- “One Hour Strategic Plan”—John Kennedy, John Kennedy Consulting
- “How to Handle and Release a Variety of Beneficial Arthropods for Greenhouse Biocontrol, Including Mistakes to Avoid”—John Sanderson, Cornell University
- “Upcoming Challenges in Biocontrol/ BCA Compatibility With Traditional Products”—Ron Valentin, Bioworks, Inc.
- “Keep Yourself Up to Date With What’s Happening in Pest Management (including new biocontrol products, techniques and tools to help with your IPM program)”—Suzanne Wainwright-Evans, Buglady Consulting

The biennial Northeast Greenhouse Conference & Expo is co-sponsored by New England Floriculture, Inc.—a group of grower representatives from the Northeast, augmented by university and cooperative extension staff in each state who specialize in greenhouse crops and management.
