IGOTY Award Winners

Chris Beytes

This year's International Grower of the Year is ... Brookdale Treeland Nurseries (BTN) of Canada! Steven van Schilfgaarde, CEO of Royal FloraHolland, and I were on the stage to announce the name and present BTN with the coveted Gold Rose award at the AIPH International Grower of the Year (IGOTY) Awards Ceremony on Tuesday night of the IPM show in January.

BTN is one of the largest and most respected growers of garden plants in Canada. They service garden retailers, landscape contractors, municipalities and golf courses throughout Canada and the United States. With four farms in Ontario and one in British Columbia, BTN has a land base of more than 800 acres.

Founded in 2009, the IGOTY Awards recognize best practices in horticulture by the top ornamental production nurseries from around the globe, celebrating the expertise and energy they give to horticulture.

Jeff Olsen, President and CEO of BTN, commented: "We feel amazing, so blessed, to be honored with these awards. It means so much to me personally and our whole team back in Canada. We're so excited to tell them the news."

In addition to the Gold Rose Award, BTN was also awarded gold in the Finished Plants & Trees category and bronze in the Sustainability category.
